

Become an Instructor for Our New Wilderness and Remote First Aid Program

- Become an instructor for a new course that is ideal for anyone in a recreational or occupational environment an hour or more from EMS response
- Based on the Boy Scouts of America *Wilderness First Aid Curriculum and Doctrine Guidelines
- Various instructor training options available

Train for Emergencies in Wilderness and Remote Environments

Ideal for scouts, outdoor enthusiasts or employees in remote environments an hour or more from EMS response, our new 16-hour Wilderness and Remote First Aid course provides the skills and confidence needed to respond to an emergency when help may be delayed. The course is based on the Boy Scouts of America Wilderness First Aid Curriculum and Doctrine Guidelines and offers enhanced content to meet OSHA's Best Practices for Workplace First Aid Programs.

Become a Wilderness and Remote First Aid Instructor

Become a Red Cross instructor and be part of an elite team that delivers lifesaving health and safety training under the most recognized and trusted symbol in the world. As an authorized provider of American Red Cross health and safety courses, [insert organization name] needs instructors like you to help deliver lifesaving training. You'll enjoy training opportunities that help expand your teaching skills and technical expertise, while helping others.

Register Today for Our Next Instructor Course

Dates: April 23 & 25, 2010
Time: 6:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. on 4/23, 8am – 6:00pm on 4/25
Fee: $150.00 (incl. materials)

For more information or to register, contact Natalie Garcia at 505-262-6168.

